Content	ANT 1138 introduction to Maritime Studies	ANT 2000 Introduction to Anthropology	EUH 1000 Western Perspectives 1	EUH 1001 Western Perspectives 2	INR 2002 International Politics	BSC 2311/L Introduction to Oceanography and Marine Biology	STA 2023 Statistics	GEO 1200/L Physical Geography or GLY 2010L Physical Geology	ANT 3137 Shipwreck Archaeology	ECO 3003 Principles of Economic Theory and Public Policy	HIS 4284 Maritime History	EVR 4023 Coastal and Marine Environments	ANT 4121 Combined Archaeological Field Methods, ANT 4835 Martitine Archaeological Field Methods, BSC 3948 Sevoire Learning Field Study II. EVR 4941 Practicum in Environmental Studies, GIS 4071 Methods and Techniques in Environmental Resource Management and Planning, HIS 4955 Oversess and Field Study in History, or Internship in Minor Field
Content
SLO 1: Describe and apply concepts and theories in the subfields that contribute to Maritime Studies: Archaeology, History, Marine Biology, Government, Environmental Studies, Economics SLO 2: Use Terminology	x	x	x	x	x	x	x	x	x	x	x	x	x
from Maritime studies accurately	×	×	×	×	×	×	×	×	×	×	×	×	x SLO 3: Describe career options that follow training in Maritime Studies  Critical Thinking								x		х		x	х SLO 4: Conceptualize a problem or issue from a maritime perspective											x		х
SLO 5: Identify relevant goals and objectives SLO 6: Use methods of													х inquiry from different domains of maritime studies knowledge									х	x	x
SLO 7: Employ appropriate analytical tools							х			x
SLO 8: Draw reasonable conclusions									x	х	х	х	х Communication SLO 9: Communicate professionally in writing and public speaking											×		x SLO 10: Conduct research using information technology Integrity / Values	х megney/ values
SLO 11: Identify and practice ethical standards consistent with relevant professional organizations (American Anthropological									ļ
SLO 12: Recognize ethical components in complex									^ situations SLO 13: Analyze complex		х							х ethical situations and design appropriate solutions SLO 14: Articulate									х responsibilities of anthropologist to society									х Project Management SLO 15: Develop, implement, document, and present a maritime investigative research and/or field experience using cross-disciplinary approaches and multiple methods of inquiry									х				х SLO 16: Design and execute projects reasonably with given time constraints									х				х SLO 17: Develop back up planning skills SLO 18: Collaborate													х effectively with team members													x members													