

Theatre

College of Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities

About the Program

Study and receive individualized training in performance, design, technology, and stage management. The Department of Theatre offers undergraduate audition-only programs with both B.A. and B.F.A options.

What You'll Learn

Obtain training while exploring the various aspects of theatre through the classroom, laboratory (productions) and professional development opportunities.

Majors

- B.F.A. Acting
- B.F.A. Design and Technology
- B.F.A. Musical Theatre
- B.A. Theatre
- B.A. Arts Administration

Minor

- Theatre

Department of Theatre

Theatre

Academic Opportunities

- Alpha Psi Omega
- Scholarships
- Irish Experience, Immersive Study Abroad

Representative Courses

- Acting
- Arts Administration
- Costume Construction
- Costume History
- Design Studio
- Directing
- Improvisation
- Musical Theatre History
- Script Analysis
- Stage Management

Career Opportunities

Upon graduation, students may pursue placement in a variety of opportunities.

- Actor
- Arts Administration
- Choreographer
- Costume Designer
- Director
- Events Manager
- Lighting Designer
- Master Electrician
- Scenic Designer
- Stage Manager
- Technical Director

UWF Department of Theatre

11000 University Pkwy.
Building 82, Room 292
850.474.2680
theatre@uwf.edu
uwf.edu/theatre

Scan to request information!

