Archaeology Lab Volunteer Program

The Florida Public Archaeology Network has announced its schedule for the spring semester. FPAN is seeking enthusiastic volunteers of all ages to help sort artifacts from local archaeological sites. No experience is needed, but a brief tutorial will be given by a member of the experienced staff. The schedule is Wednesday and Friday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Jan. 14 through April 29. The Lab is located inside the FPAN Coordinating Center at 207 E. Main Street in Downtown Pensacola
