This specialization, which also requires the completion of a related approved minor, combines academics and social services, preparing individuals to work in non-profit organizations, businesses, community administration, educational development or communication. It also prepares students to become effective leaders in promoting institutions, relationships, politics and services that value diversity and work toward eliminating racial, ethnic, national and other stereotypes.

Required Minor (12-18 sh)

Students must complete a minor or its 15 sh equivalent in a field related to the student's career objectives

Upper Division Electives (12-18 sh)

The remainder of the program will be comprised of electives that students can select without limitation. However, students will be advised to select additional 3000/4000 level courses to total at least 48 sh at the 3000/4000 level if necessary. If students do not require additional 3000/4000 level courses, they may take 1000/2000 level courses at UWF.

Note:

F = Fall
 Sp = Spring
 Su = Summer

Courses are typically offered during the semesters indicated; however, changes may be made due to retirements, sabbaticals, resignations or other offerings needing to be scheduled due to demand for that department. Please confer with your advisor for approved courses being offered during a semester.
