

Stand Up for others...

Make a Difference in your community and

Choose a dual major in Criminal Justice and Social Work at the University of West Florida

To earn a dual major in both Criminal Justice and Social Work, students must complete the following courses (63 credit hours) in addition to meeting requirements 1-4 below:

1. A minimum of 120 total semester hours, which includes
2. A minimum of 48 semester hours of upper-division courses (3000-4000-level)
3. A minimum of 30 semester hours at UWF
4. Completion of General Studies Requirements

SOW3203 Intro to Social Work

CCJ3024 American Criminal Justice System

CCJ3014 Criminology

SOW3313 Individuals and Families

SOW3350 Interviewing and Recording

SOW3322 Work with Groups

SOW4232 Policy Analysis

CJC4010 Punishment and Society

SOW3113 Human Behavior in Organizations & Communities

SOW3103 Human Behavior in the Social Environment

SOW4233 Social Justice, Action, and Policies

CCJ3060 Moral Issues

CLP3144 Abnormal Psych

CJL3510 Judicial Process

CJE4110 Police in a Free Society

CCJ4700 Research Design in CJ

CCJ4940 Criminal Justice Internship (3 credit hour internship: 200 hours; supervisors not necessarily MSW)

SOW4510 Social Work Field Instruction (9 credit hour internship: 400 hours; supervisors must have MSW)

SOW4522 Senior Seminar (with 9 hour internship)

If you would like more information, then please contact any Criminal Justice or Social Work professor.
(Chipola Campus: sstone@uwf.edu; Fort Walton Beach Campus: cwarren@uwf.edu or kjohnson@uwf.edu)