ABOUT THE TEST:

- The test is 60 minutes in length and contains 120 questions. The examinee will have basic information to enter in the computer that should take approximately 15 minutes. The total appointment length is 90 minutes.
- Each test item appears on a separate screen giving the examinee the option of answering the item, skipping it and going on to the next item, or returning to the previous items.
- At the end of the test, if there is time left, examinees may review all of the items or return to those items they have skipped.
- An "UNOFFICIAL" score report will be printed for you at the conclusion of the test. The "OFFICIAL" score report will be mailed within 2 weeks to you and the institutions you have selected.

NOTE: Arrangements for special accommodations must be made 3 weeks in advance.

***Once your registration form and fee have been received, you may call the Testing Center to schedule a testing date and time.
