

UWF ATHLETICS
2008-09 HIGHLIGHTS - QUICK POINTS

- Women's Soccer NCAA runner-up; best season in program history
- Women's tennis player Suzanna Cavalcante singles runner-up at ITA National Small College Championships
- Volleyball won first GSC title, reached NCAA South Region finals for first time; best season in program history
- Seven All-Americans during fall season, including three first team All-Americans in women's soccer
- First time in school history three fall teams won GSC championships (men's & women's soccer, volleyball)
- Women's soccer (No. 2), men's soccer (No. 10), and volleyball (No. 15) all reached as high as the top 15 in national polls during the season
- Shaneka Gordon (women's soccer) named Daktronics National Player of the Year
- Joe Bartlinski (women's soccer) and Melissa Wolter (volleyball) named GSC Coach of the Year; Bartlinski named NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year