

ARGO ARRIVAL: WELCOME WEEK & BEYOND 2011

ARGO ARRIVAL! WELCOME WEEK & BEYOND 2011

is an annual tradition and the official kick-off of the academic school year at the University of West Florida. It fosters school spirit for both new and returning students. Events span the first few weeks of the Fall semester and you will make new friends, learn about UWF and how to navigate the campus, explore resources that can help you through your college career, and most of all, have fun!

The University of West Florida offers a rich academic, cultural and social environment to new and returning students. ARGO ARRIVAL: Welcome Week and Beyond 2011 will:

- Welcome you to your university with assisted move-in for Residence Life students.
- Offer extended hours for key student services.
- Inform you about involvement opportunities at the Club Fair during Fall Frenzy.
- Entertain you at Late Nite at the Rec, CAB Wet n' Wild, Beach Bash, Cultural Explosion, and an assortment of other special and exciting events!

While there are many structured events and activities during this time, it is up to you to take advantage of all of these exciting opportunities. You won't want to miss out! For more information visit www.uwf.edu/welcomeweek.
