

2. _____

Are there photographs of the Loch Ness monster? 1. _____

2. _____

Find the word that completes the meaning of the verb in each of the following sentences. Write the complement on the first blank. On the second blank, write DO if the complement is a direct object. If the complement is a predicate word, write PN for predicate noun, PA for predicate adjective, or PP for predicate pronoun. (2 points for each blank)

Georgia is famous for its beaches. 1. _____

2. _____

Rick made a lampshade from seashells. 1. _____

2. _____

Close Encounters of the Third Kind entranced me. 1. _____

2. _____

I drove the car over the curb. 1. _____

2. _____

The discussion dispelled rumors and misconceptions. 1. _____

2. _____

Have you heard any news from Jaime? 1. _____

2. _____

This book has the necessary information. 1. _____

2. _____

. The candidate most likely to win is Anne. 1. _____

2. _____

. The tangerine feels ripe to me. 1. _____

2. _____

. Feel the texture of the material. 1. _____

2. _____

Decide whether each of the underlined phrases below is a verb phrase, noun phrase, prepositional phrase, infinitive phrase, participial phrase, gerund phrase, or appositive phrase. Write the type of phrase on the blank. (2 points only)

. The main component of blackboard chalk is no longer the mineral chalk. 1. _____

. I hope to convince him of my sincerity. 2. _____

. Beth has been elected homecoming queen. 3. _____

. To persuade them will require a strong argument. 4. _____

. Am I walking too fast for you? 5. _____

. Walking fast is good for the circulation. 6. _____

. Mel prefers developing his photographs himself. 7. _____

. Ralph Nader, the famous consumer advocate, spoke at the meeting. 8. _____

. The passengers stared at the can rolling down the aisle. 9. _____

We strolled along the old Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

10. _____

Decide whether each sentence below is a simple sentence, a compound sentence, a complex sentence, or a compound-complex sentence. Write your answer on the blank. (2 points each)

Stop and think before you answer.

1. _____

Oberlin and Swarthmore Colleges both accepted her.

2. _____

We just stood there, watching helplessly.

3. _____

Do you consider Circe and Lilith heroines?

4. _____

Carl is good at mechanics, and Jon is an accomplished cook.

5. _____

Although I like all mysteries, Christie's are my favorites.

6. _____

The restaurant behind the school has a thriving business.

7. _____

The restaurant that is located behind the school is thriving, and the owner plans to open another elsewhere.

8. _____

The band opened with new numbers and then played some old hits.

9. _____

I had just settled down with a book when the phone rang.

10. _____

Having finished his chores, Jay relaxed with a novel.

11. _____

Computers help business people sort out facts.

12. _____

Even the wealthiest urbanite depends upon city planners and politicians to keep his or her own street pleasant.

13. _____

Lee told me that the test had been postponed.

14. _____

Examine the machine, noticing how it is put together. 15. _____

Decide whether the underlined words in each sentence below are a phrase or a clause. If it is a phrase, mark column 1; if it is a clause, mark column 2. (1 pt. Each)

What you want me to say puzzles me. _____

Reading a daily newspaper is a good habit to start. _____

During the play's intermission, I had a Coke in the lobby. _____

Dee showed me how to change the typewriter ribbon. _____

Can you donate anything to the used-clothing drive? _____

Before you visit Paris, memorize a few French phrases. _____

Consider your alternatives before refusing the offer. _____

The job is hard, but succeeding at it is important to her. _____

Every jar in the lot but my old Ford was vandalized. _____

I will put this jacket away until spring comes. _____

Determine if the underlined subordinate clause in each sentence below is a noun clause, an adjective clause, or an adverb clause. Write the type of clause on the blank after each sentence. (2 points each)

She told me that you had asked her first. 1. _____

Try some beignets while you are in New Orleans. 2. _____

That movie, which starred Gary Cooper, is my favorite western. 3. _____

- . Have you heard what the weather will be like tomorrow? 4. _____
- . Hermit crabs live in shells that other creatures have abandoned. 5. _____
- . The philosopher who first said that was Socrates. 6. _____
- . Who would win was unclear until the last moment. 7. _____
- . Keep stretching until your muscles feel strained. 8. _____
- . You consulted a map that is out of date. 9. _____
- . After we cleared the table, we began to rebuild. 10. _____

Underline the subordinate clause in each of the following sentences. If the subordinate clause is an adjective or adverb clause, write the word that it modifies on the blank. If the subordinate clause is a noun clause, write its role in the sentence (for example, direct object) (3 points each sentence; no points unless entirely correct).

- . Bert said that he would be late for dinner. 1. _____
- . If the roads are cleared, we will drive. 2. _____
- . The book told me what I wanted to know. 3. _____
- . A man who had witnessed the accident came forward. 4. _____
- . The bulbs that you planted in the fall are blooming. 5. _____
- . What you think is important to me. 6. _____
- . Even though it has a heavy coat, the bear hibernates. 7. _____
- . After identifying the problem, apply one of the 8. _____

solutions that we have discussed.

. Talk with him after you have made your decision. 9. _____

. We visited the cottage where John Keats had lived. 10. _____